The school’s continued support is greatly appreciated.

Focus on K-1

It was wonderful to see so many parents and grandparents visit our room last Friday. The K-1 children thoroughly enjoyed showing their bookwork and artwork to everyone.

We have been focusing on writing that “looks great and sounds great” during literacy. Each day the children complete a spelling, writing and listening activity as well as guided reading with me. We call it our “reading round robin.”

Last Friday we played games with our giant coloured parachute for sport. It was lots of fun.
